

A RESOLUTION

Commending Our Republican Elected Officials and Candidates

WHEREAS, the Republican Party exists to support candidates for public office who identify themselves as Republicans and for the advancement of conservative principles; and

WHEREAS, the Ninth District Republican Party and the Republican county parties therein, are proud of all candidates who embrace the Republican Party platform and who have held strong to their conservative beliefs and principals in their campaign for public office, regardless of their level of success in doing so; and

WHEREAS, the Ninth District Republican Party recognizes the level of sacrifice that must be made by these candidates, and are grateful for the public servants willing to make those sacrifices in order to serve us;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Ninth District Republican Party, in convention assembled this 18th day of April, 2009, wishes to commend our Republican elected officials and all of the candidates who have supported the Republican Party within the Ninth District for the sacrifices they have made and hard work that they have given in order to advance conservative principles and the Republican Party.
